NEWPORT NEWS BOYS PROVED EASY VICTIMS

Fort Team Walked Away With
First Game of Y. M. C. A.
League Season

MILLET KEPT VISITORS GUESSING

Soldier Pitcher Allowed Only Four Hits and Struck Out Twelve Men—Carson Put Out of Game for Striking Visiting Player With Bat After a Collision.

The Peninsula Y. M. C. A. baseball league opened yesterday afternoon on the Fort Monroe diamond with a game between Newport News and Fort Monroe.

Although the Shipbuilders put up a hard contest the armylike completely walked away with them, winning the game by the score of 9 to 2. Newport News made two runs in the first inning, but after that the visitors never had a ghost of a chance to win.

Millett was in the box for the soldiers and his excellent pitching kept the visitors guessing. He allowed but one man to walk to first and four hits were secured off of him.

During the fourth inning Newport News went to pieces and from that time on it was Fort Monroe's game.
In this inning Ellsworth ran into Carson. Carson became angry and threw a bat at the Newport News man, striking Ellsworth on the legs.
Carson was immediately ordered to the bench.

Monfalcone started the pitching for Newport News, but was relieved in the sixth's inning by Reynolds. Seven hits were made off Monfalcone and three off Reynolds. The two pitcher, struck out three men, while Millett sent twelve of the Shipbuilders to the bench.

of June.

WEDNESDAY VIRGINIA DAY.

Business Men in Hampton Will be asked to Close Their Stores.

A movement will be started tomorrow looking to the observance of Virginia Day at the Jamestown Exposition on Wednesday by the people of the lower Peninsula.

The business men and merchants will be asked to close their places of business for the day in order that the clerks may assist in making the home-coming day a perfect success.
Governor Swanson has declared the day a legal holiday and it is thought probably that the banks of the town will close.

PENINSULA GUARDS.

Hampton Company to go into Camp at the Jamestown Exposition.

The Peninsula Guards, Capt. Thornton F. Jones, will leave this morning for Jamestown Exposition grounds, where the encampment of the Seventy-first regiment will be held next week. Captain Jones expects to take a large company.

Last night the company met in the armory and finished arrangements for the trip. Several guards were out rounding up the soldiers so that all will be on hand today.

MR. SANFORD CAPTAIN.

He is Chosen to Head the Y. M. C. A.
Baseball Nine.

Rev. T. Ryland Sanford has been elected captain and field manager of the baseball team of the Hampton Young Men's Christian Association.
The team's first game of the season will occur next Saturday afternoon with the Fort Monroe team on the Darling's diamond.

ton, will address the men's meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon on the subject,
"God's Leading Through Mexico."

One Consolation.

Alice—And she refused him after all the encouragement she gave him?
May—Well, it is fortunate that we do not have to marry every one to whom we give encouragement.—
